Part VI. Essay Questions

Answer the essay questions in the fields provided. There is a 500-word limit for each essay. Please do not attach additional files, as they will not be read.

1. Navin Narayan was deeply passionate about public service and excelled in academia. Please describe the importance of scholarship and public service in your life and how the Red Cross has guided your love for both learning and serving others.

2. The transition from high school to college is a tough one that raises the question of where to devote one's time and resources. Please describe your goals for continued involvement with the American Red Cross upon matriculation.

3. The American Red Cross has touched so many lives that almost everyone has a Red Cross story, a powerful experience involving the organization that either drew you to volunteer or makes you proud to be a volunteer. Please share your Red Cross story.
